++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells and scattered heavy showers.

Today:
A breezy day on Monday with sunshine and isolated showers at first. The showers will become more frequent in the afternoon, and will be heavy in places with a small risk of hail and thunder. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Scattered showers at first will give way to longer spells of rain by midnight, with some heavy rain in places. The rain may ease later with some drier interludes developing. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tuesday:
Cloudy and increasingly windy, with spells of locally heavy rain for much of the day. However, it should slowly turn drier and brighter from the west towards evening. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Dry and bright on Wednesday with some afternoon sunshine. Dry with bright or sunny spells on Thursday and Friday once morning mist and fog has lifted.
